

Summer Institute on Ageing 2025. A multidisciplinary approach to promote active and healthy ageing

	Summer school: Multidisciplinary perspectives in the study of ageing based on longitudinal surveys						Workshop: Ageing, health and retirement
	Monday 9		Tuesday 10		Wednesday 11		Thursday 12		Friday 13
9:20-9:30	Welcome		Growing older in good wealth and health Viola Angelini University of Groningen (NL)		Economic preparation for retirement: Theory and measurement Michael Hurd RAND (US)	9:30-10:30	Environmental risks and older adult's health Tom Bellander Karolinska Institutet (SE)	9:30-10:30	Grandparenting, health, and inequality in ageing societies Karen Glaser Kings' College (UK)
9:30-11:00	Expanding life-span: discovery and opportunities for research Luigi Ferrucci National Institute on Ageing (US)	9:30-11:00		9:30-11:00		10:30-11:30	Live longer and healthier: Impact of pension income for low-income retirees Han Ye University of Mannheim (DE)	10:30-11:30	Trends in health and health disparities at older ages in the U.S. Susann Rohwedder RAND (US)
11:00-11:15	Coffee break	11:00-11:15	Coffee break	11:00-11:15	Coffee break	11:30-11:45	Coffee break	11:30-11:45	Coffee break
11:15-12:45	Beyond self-reports in surveys Arie Kapteyn USCDornsife (US)	11:15-12:45	Measuring and modeling structural and social determinants of cognitive aging, dementia, and brain health Jennifer Manly Columbia University (US)	11:15-12:45	Frailty, multimorbidity and healthcare use among older adults Laura Fratiglioni Karolinska Institutet (SE)	11:45-12:45	Health measurement and dynamics Chiara Dal Bianco Università di Padova (IT)	11:45-12:45	Aging, cognitive functioning and financial decision making Franco Peracchi University of Rome Tor Vergata (IT)
13:00-14:30	Lunch break	13:00-14:30	Lunch break	13:00-14:30	Lunch break	13:00-14:30	Lunch break	13:00-14:30	Lunch break
14:30-16:15	Hands-on session: Gateway to Global Aging Data Rinaldo Naci and Maha Gasim Omer Fdlalseed	14:30-16:15	Hands-on session: Introduction to SHARELIFE Stefano Castaldo	14:30-16:30	Luigi Ferrucci leads research projects presentation by Summer School participants	14:30-15:30	Subjective expectations and health Pamela Giustinelli Bocconi University (IT)	14:30-15:30	Genetic risk for alzheimer's and dementia: cognition, economic behavior, and financial planning Nicholas W. Papageorge Johns Hopkins University (US)
						15:30-16:30	Luigi Ferrucci leads research projects presentation by Summer School participants		Luigi Ferrucci leads general discussion
18:30	Networking Reception (sponsored by AFFIRMO)	18:30	Cocktail			19:30	Workshop Dinner (faculty only)		